FOREWORD

In view of the fact that the year 1935 realizes the 300th Anniversary of the founding of the Boston Latin School, the first High School in America, we, the Class of June, 1935, desire to express our admiration of those men through whose efforts the realm of secondary education was placed within the means of all.

Bearing this in mind, the reader may see instances of great advantages held by us over the Colonial pupil. Some of these are brought out in this book, which we have published for the recollection of four eventful years at Bloomfield.

===== 1935 Cavalcade =====

DEDICATION

We, the June Class of 1935, dedicate this Annual to Mr. Edson J. Lawrence, who, as class adviser, has so capably conducted us through four eventful years at Bloomfield.

GEORGE ALLEN ALBRECHT

George's versatility is a characteristic for which he has become noted. His varied school activities doubtless helped to round out his pleasing personality. Outside of school, George's interests are manifested in sports and fishing. He is quite a "minstrel man".

Student Council, Hi-Y, Annual Board, Chem Club, German Club, Glee Club, Student Patrol.

JOELLE K. ALLEN

"Jo" entered Bloomfield High from George Inness, Montclair. She likes swimming, tennis, and reading. "Joe's" pleasant smile has brightened school life and won her many friends.

Junior Red Cross.

JACK ARCHER

Here's the man who pretends to be a woman hater in order to remain a bachelor as long as he can. Jack enjoys mixing things in the Chem lab, and does he know Dr. Walrath's "no action" questions? He expects to go to college.

ELIZABETH ANDEM

"Betty" is one of the most popular girls in our class. She has been a feature writer for the "Prints" and is a member of the Girl Reserves. Who ever said that Michael can't pick 'em?

Girl Reserves, Sphinx Club, Student Prints.

BEVERLY AYERS

"Bev" likes swimming, choir, tennis, and driving in a car. On graduation night a ring on "Bev's" left hand will announce an important event.

Student Patrol, French Club.

JOHN S. AYRE

Whether Jack intends to be a policeman or not we don't know, but he did a nice job of it in our senior play. Out-of-school "Jack" works afternoons and Saturdays, but still finds time for golf and amateur theatricals. He is a member of St. George's Dramatic Society in Passaic.

Senior Play, German Club.

1935 Cavalcade

PHILIP LEWIS AXT

"Ladeez and Gennulmen" meet the class sportsman—"Phip" Axt. "Phip" earned his basketball letter and hunts, swims, and plays golf, at which game he is famous in the local sports world. Motoring also claims its share of his time.

Basketball, Hi-Y, Swimming Team.

RUTH BALDWIN

Ruth sings in the Girls' Choir, and is a very active member of many church guilds, and she is everywhere sought after.

Her modest disposition has attracted to her a great many friends who seek her for her own sincerity and true worth.

DAVID E. BARTLETT

"Dave" is tall, not-so-quiet, fellow who never seems to have anything to do in study hall. Among "Dave's" outside activities is the active participation in the De Molay.

Band, Orchestra, Sphinx Society, Senior Play.

ROBERT R. BEHN

Bloomfield High gained what Irvington High lost when "Bob" moved into our midst. "Bob" is an accomplished musician and excels in track activities and dancing. He has been an important member of the Student Council.

Student Council.

JOHN J. BIESIADECKE

John came to Bloomfield from St. Regis, in New York, to begin his second high school year, and established what might be termed an "honor roll reputation". His distinctive work earned him a place on the Student Council, where he served for two terms. Despite his outside working responsibilities, John finds time for swimming and skating.

Student Council.

ALBERT J. BISCHOFF

This red-haired specimen doesn't yield to his hair. "Rusty" is steady, dignified, and serious, but may often be seen on his motorcycle riding through Brookdale with his pal, Fred Gillman.

1935 Cavalcade

LILLIAN BLUNT

Petite but sweet—"Lil" is one of these girls you can easily write a poem about. She's always full of pep, and this no doubt accounts for her being a member of the Senior and Junior Gym Teams. Swimming and reading take up "Lil's" spare time.

Gym Team, Orchestra.

CHARLOTTE BOARDMAN

Charlotte's unusual hobby is raising Great Danes at her home in Cedar Grove. She is quiet and rather reserved and though few of us know her well she hides an interesting personality behind her reserve. Although she is not going to college she hopes to take courses in psychology next year.

Latin Club, Annual Board.

MARTHA BOHEIM

The fact that Martha has served as a chemist's assistant and a clerical worker in a confectionery store for two years is sufficient evidence of her capability. She is also a confirmed optimist and a dancing enthusiast.

VIRGINIA VIOLA
BOLLENBACH

When asked for her preferences she replied, "Having a good time in general" which seems to strike the keynote of her character. She collects antiques and likes to travel and is also fond of swimming and dancing.

Red Cross.

LAURA BONGARTZ

Meet one of the rare beings who belong to the exclusive "Three Year Sorority",—Laura. She, like her sister, is interested in art, and specializes in dress designing; maybe "designed by Bongartz" will become a well-known phrase. We hope so, Laura.

SHIRLEY BONGARTZ

"How-ya, boys" (Remember the "Full House", fellers?) Shirley has a large handsome weakness, but it's no fun to have two eagle-eyed rubber-necks in the back seat all the way to school. Well, Shirley, a ride is a ride. Right, Mr. Klein?

Chem Club, Girl Reserves.

1935 Cavalcade

HENRY E. BOROWY

Henry is a very good reason why we have had a good baseball team this spring. His magic arm sent many a batter back to the bench gnashing his teeth. "Bro" is also a fine basketball player, and was with the squad all season. Baseball, Basketball.

EDWARD E. BOWNS

"Ed" has done his share of supporting the various school clubs, and they have been benefited by his active membership. He is also a tennis enthusiast, indulges in football, and his aesthetic craving is satisfied by music.

Hi-Y, Sphinx Club, Student Council.

MARGARET BRADLEY

Margaret has been active in school with Girl Reserves, Latin, and Chem Clubs. She's an all-round sport, too, as is witnessed by her fondness for swimming, tennis, and skating.

Girl Reserves, Latin Club, Chem Club.

WILLIAM WALKER BRALEY

"Bud's" favorite pastime is tinkering with a 14 horsepower (S. A. E.) Chevy, but once in a while he finds time to put in a lick or two on the Annual, just to assert his authority.

Annual Board, Swimming Team, Tennis Team, Mgr.

WILMA EDITH BROSCH

"Bobbie" is one of the most popular girls in the class. You probably remember her as the heroine in our senior play "A Full House". When back in 1931, "Bobbie" decided to leave Cleveland and come to Bloomfield, it was lucky for us, eh, Frank?

Her charm and personality have made her many friendships.

Senior Play.

ELIZABETH BURNET

"Betty" is one of the class's tall dignified brunettes whose pleasing manner has made her a welcome participant in many school activities. She is an ardent skating and swimming enthusiast, besides excelling in gym work.

Girl Reserves, Gym Team, Swimming Club.

1935 Cavalcade

LEONARD BUSSIN

"Lenny" becomes inflamed with zeal and enthusiasm for his studies at infrequent intervals. His excuses are unfailingly of the first order, however. Never be it chalked against a Bussin that he didn't at least try to smooth things over.

German Club.

ANGELO CAMPOLIETO

A regular fellow is "Campy" and one of that rare brotherhood who can show to advantage on a football eleven without developing a superiority complex. Baseball and swimming occupy a lot of his time out of school.

Football, three years.

TALLY MARIE CAPRIO

Tally's pet hobbies are horse-back riding and attending broadcasts (especially amateur hours), and she seems quite proficient at both. Her sunny smile has won her many good friends. She expects to attend college in the fall.

Spanish Club, Annual Board.

SAVILLA THERESA LOUISE CAPRIOTTI

Savilla is a quiet, kind friend, although her friends say she's not as quiet as you think. She intends to enter training in the Memorial Hospital. Good luck, Savilla!

ARTHUR ROBERT CARR

At last the secret is out. "Bob's" name is not "Bob" after all but Arthur! "A-ha-a-ah!" This tall, debonair, young man (we'll leave out the hair-cut) is the best of good fellows, and is well liked by everyone.

Hi-Y, Math Club-Pres., Annual Board, Class Treasurer, Senior Play Committee-chairman, Tennis Team.

NICHOLAS CIANCI

"Nick" is the fellow with all the friends. He is a member of the baseball squad and spends his spare moments in playing golf or swimming. He was also a member of the Student Council.

Student Council.

1935 Cavalcade

HELEN GROFF COLE

Here's the young lady who enjoys driving Dodges. Helen intends to prepare for secretarial work in college. She has been active in several clubs and is an officer of the Girl Reserves.

Student Patrol, Glee Club, Girl Reserves, Treas.

VIRGINIA HELEN COLE

Virginia is the little lady with the wistful eyes. She seldom has anything to say, but her even temperament and good nature are constant.

Home Economics Club, Girls' Glee Club.

PALMER COLLINS

"Pat" is one of the true music-lovers of the class, even though he does come from Cedar Grove. A dry wit is his portion too, but its subtlety and unobtrusiveness are too delicate for most of us coarser beings.

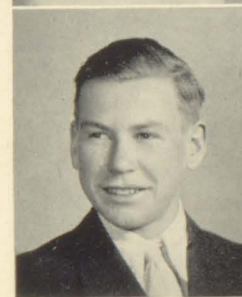

Orchestra, Band, Boys' Glee Club Pres.

IRENE COMMERFORD

Irene likes cold weather because it brings an opportunity for ice skating. Cheerfulness and vivacity have made her a fine member of the Spanish Club. She loves to hike and dance.

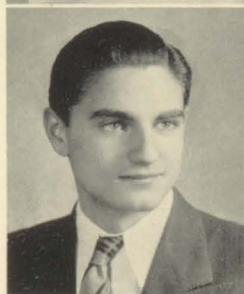

Spanish Club.

FRANK P. CORAGGIO

Frank's participation in school activities has been hindered by his outside work. Yet, even "F.P.C.'s" mighty swing of the butcher's cleaver could not sever the admiration and esteem his friends have for him. He's a member of the banking staff, cafeteria cashier and one of the Annual typists.

Cafeteria, Annual Typist, Bank.

MILTON STEDIFORD CROSBY

"Steady" hails from that far metropolis, Cedar Grove, and he was an esteemed member of our football team. "Bing" has shown considerable talent as a dishwasher, and has been employed as such on several notable occasions.

Football Team.

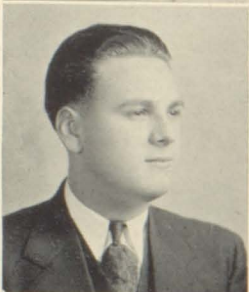

1935 Cavalcade

MARY CUNNINGHAM

She is "Mistress Mary, quite contrary", for hers is one of those elusive personalities which are so impossible to classify. She is athletically inclined as is shown by her position on the Gym Team, yet she is the small, blue-eyed type whom you think of as always being protected. (Deceives the boys, no doubt).

Gym Team.

FRANK J. CUOCO

This personage who sports the rather distinctive sobriquet of "Cuke" is really quite human. His personable appearance causes one to ask if there is, perchance, an embryonic gigolo in our midst.

LAMONT W. CURREN

"Monte" is a sportsman of the first magnitude. He seems to wrest his just share of happiness from living, although such dark clouds as second year algebra occasionally blacken the horizon.

Hi-Y, Tennis, Basketball.

CARETA DILLINGER

Although Careta has been with us only a little over a year she has proved a welcome addition to the class. "Re" plans to go to college but has not decided as yet which one she will enter.

Girl Reserves, French Club, Student Council.

MARY J. DOBROWOLSKI

A laugh, a lot of talking and oh!—a big racket down the hall! Who is it? "Dobby", of course. If you say that Gracie Allen can make you laugh, just listen to Mary. However "Dobby" can be serious enough to act as president of the Spanish Club for a few minutes.

Student Prints-Chief Typist, Annual Board.

KATHRYN MARION DOLFINGER

Kathryn can be identified by her cheery disposition and happy smile. She is a lieutenant Scouts, which probably accounts for brisk mannerisms.

Home Economics Club, Junior Gym Team.

1935 Cavalcade

LOUIS DE ANGELIS

"Lou" is quite a busy fellow, as he works in his father's barber shop after school. Once in a while though, he finds time for a game of tennis or attends a bicycle race. "Lou" and Mr. Andrus ought to organize a comedy team.

WILLIAM J. DONOVAN

"Bill" has his own ideas about some things, but nevertheless he is a swell fellow and pretty easy to get along with. He is an esteemed member of the band for which he does so much fine "twiddling." We've all seen him at the football games. "Bill" is also a good student, and quite a mathematician.

German Club Treasurer, Band.

MAY DRAKE

May's fingers portray the artistic conception of her brain. Not less talented is she as an athlete for she is a member of the Senior Gym Team. May is essentially courteous and kind; she has a friend in everyone.

Annual Board, Senior Gym Team.

ROBERT C. DU BOIS

"Bob" and Ted Vassar can be found almost always in one and the same place. "Bob" is Ted's "Printer's Devil", and a very useful one at that.

Student Council, Senior Play, Minstrel.

ELEANOR LORRAINE DU VAL

"Ele" collects souvenirs (we wonder if there aren't a few fraternity pins among them) and likes to knit. Her favorite sport is dancing, and she is also fond of animals.

Home Economics Club, Student Patrol.

JOHN A. DURGOM

Hail to "Buckshot", undoubtedly the class's most active member. It is puzzling to us how he has managed such a diversified program. To wit: Cheerleader (Captain), Hi-Y Treasurer, Annual Board, Red Cross Treasurer, Senior Play, Student Council.

1935 Cavalcade

FLORENCE LOUISE EASTER

Florence is small and pretty and one of those clever people who make all their own clothes. She entered from Kearny in September, where she was a member of the Glee Club as well as the Girl Reserves. She will train at Mountinside Hospital next year.

Girls Glee Club (Kearny), Girl Reserves (Kearny).

RUTH EDWARDS

The eyes have it! You've never seen bluer nor brighter ones. Nor have you known a more active club member. Ruth is a born schemer and organizer and everyone has a good time under her leadership.

Student Patrol, Sphinx Society, Student Prints, Hiking Club.

DOROTHY VIRGINIA ELLERT

Meet a real sportswoman, folks! Swimming, tennis, riding, and boating are her hobbies. "Dottie" also has the notion that all carved stone elephants should belong to her. (She must be a sort of Roy C. Andrews-ess).

NORMA ELSENIUS

Norma has a unique hobby, that of collecting things from places she has been in. In Bloomfield High she has added many friendships to her collection. Her mirth is not hilarity, but a subtle lasting brightness and buoyancy which should make her confident of all her tomorrows.

GERTRUDE ENGLISH

Gertrude is conspicuous for her sincere interest in school and local activities. She has also attained the rank of Golden Eaglet in Girl Scouts. We have heard that lure of ships and sailors holds some fascination for Gertrude.

Band, Orchestra.

ALBERT F. ERDMAN

"Al" is one of the men about school. He is in everything and does well in all of them. Unfortunately for him track was discontinued the year he was made Captain. The Hi-Y owns him as its president and other clubs in the school have him as an interested member. He's quite some pumpkins as a basketball player.

Math Club, Chem Club, Band.

1935 Cavalcade

EUGENIE EUVRARD

"Genie" is the fortunate possessor of good looks and a lively personality coupled with great enthusiasm and efficiency in class projects. One of the most popular members of the class, her interests are varied, running from athletics to dramatics.

Class Vice Pres., Jr. and Sr. Gym Team, Senior Play, Annual Board.

DOROTHY FRANCES FARWELL

"Dot" is another active member of our class, who likes to sew, dance, and swim. During the summer you'll find "Dot" vacationing in Maine. She served on the 12B Dance Committee and the Washington Trip Committee.

Chem Club.

CLAIRE ANN FERGUSON

"Fergie" has the unusual hobby of collecting souvenirs. Among these are some Bloomfield Senior Annuals dating back as far as 1910. She is an attractive blonde and likes sports of all kinds.

JOHN H. FINAMORE

"Johnny" is one of our best athletes. He has played in all three of the major sports during his career. After he graduates, "Bucky" intends to take a course to prepare for law school.

Football, Basketball, Baseball, Hi-Y, Chem Club.

MURIEL WINIFRED FLOREN

We were glad that Muriel came back from Atlantic City to finish school with us, for she always was lots of fun. Muriel wants to be a nurse, and she will be a good tonic to her patients, we're certain.

Hiking Club, Annual Typist, Home Economics.

ALFRED B. FRANKOMANO

"Fritz" is one of our better dancers, completely graceful and at his ease on the floor. His favorite partner seems to be a tiny little blonde of the 12A class. Good luck, "Fritz".

Spanish Club, Student Patrol.

1935 Cavalcade

EDWARD FRANCIS

"Ed" is one of those fellows with an inquiring mind. He knows something of almost everything. "Eddie" has the reputation of being, perhaps, the maddest of the "mad chemists" in the class.

Math Club, Chemistry Club, Stamp Club.

ELEANOR FRICKE

Large and jolly,—they always go together and Fricke is no exception. With these qualifications she certainly ought to make a good nurse. Part of her time has been spent in the Girls' Vocational School where she took a course in dental nursing.

SEYMOUR FRIED

Does "Sey" think himself a Beau Brummel? His self-assured, faultless grace on the dance floor proves his natural "savoir faire". Photography, swimming, and tennis are his hobbies.

Track, Student Council, Student Prints.

JACK FULBECK

Words are a poor medium for describing Jack. However, his list of activities speaks for itself.

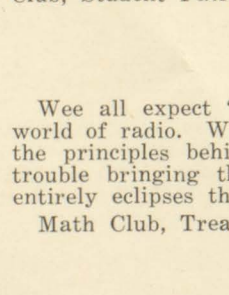

Student Council-President, Sphinx Society-President, Student Prints-Editor, Annual Board, Hi-Y, Latin Club, Senior Play Committee, Junior Prom Committee.

ELEANOR FUNK

A time for work and a time for play. Eleanor knows both. She is especially fond of athletics as has been witnessed by her work on the Gym Teams.

Junior and Senior Gym Teams, Girl Reserves, Hiking Club, Student Patrol, Student Prints.

GORDON GARIS

We all expect "Gordy" to some day revolutionize the world of radio. With his keen mind and full knowledge of the principles behind the subject, Gordon will have no trouble bringing the radio world to his feet. This feat entirely eclipses that of becoming an "assistant engineer".

Math Club, Treas. Chemistry Club, Student Council.

1935 Cavalcade

ELEANOR GRACE GAULTON

Those dancing toes of "El's" will surely put her name in lights sometime in the near future. We wish you a delightful and speedy journey up the ladder of fame, Eleanor. "El" works for Mr. Woolworth after escaping the daily "grind."

Musical Comedies.

FAY GERARD

All good things come in small packages and true to the saying, "Boots" (4 ft. 10) has one of the sweetest dispositions in the class. You ought to see Fay's fine work in gym. We always wonder how she can perform those breath taking twists and somersaults with such ease.

Senior Gym Team, Hiking Club, Spanish Club.

GLADYS GIBBONS

Do you know whom "Gibby" usually rides with? He lives in Cedar Grove. Briefly, "Gibby" lists automobiling, sewing, ("just anything") and dancing as her likes. She is also active in The Woman's Club of Cedar Grove.

Junior Red Cross Representative, Spanish Club, Annual Board.

FERDINARD WILLIAM GILLMAN

Good-natured, "Fred" knows more about motorcycles and automobiles than all the rest of us know about any given vehicle. He tinkers with a forlorn object which only a few would recognize as a dowager motorcycle, and presto-chango! The machine's in crack running order.

SYLVIA GOLDSTEIN

Sylvia is the one and only hiker who would prefer to ride. However, she must like to walk because she always cheerfully and willingly climbs up the mountains with the Hiking Club. Sylvia likes to knit and we can never tell whether her sweaters are home-made or bought.

Spanish Club, Hiking Club.

ROBERT GOODWIN

"Bob" holds a record among the members of the band. He played the bass tuba for two years and could only grunt three notes. "Bob" took up the cymbals and became an integral unit in band and orchestra. "Bob" is also famed for his "convict" polo shirts of astounding designs.

RENÉE J. GOULD

Renée's ability is evident from the fact that she is completing her high school course in three years. We admire such spunk and feel that she should succeed in any field. Her interests include singing, swimming, skating and reading.

Glee Club.

GEORGE P. GRIFFITH

George has carried on one of those heavy affairs all this year. Such consistency is admirable. His portrayal of a crook in the Senior Play was excellent and amusing. His principal hobbies are photography, railroads, and automobiles. George is a popular, well liked fellow all over school.

Chem Club, Senior Play, Football Squad.

THADDEUS A. GRUCHACZ

"Ted" is a feller who loves to "cowboy" a car around a corner on two wheels. He is noted for his skill at basketball and baseball. "Ted" enjoys swimming, skating and football.

ALICE M. GUÉGO

"Allie" is one of the select and admirable group of "three-and-a-half" students. However, all of her time has not been occupied with study, for she is an accomplished musician. Stamp collecting and traveling are "Allie's" pet hobbies.

ANNE HAHN

Anne is "that tall, queenly girl". Don't think she is serious though, for she is full of fun. Anne enjoys swimming and sewing, and strangely, her ambition is to stay home.

Spanish Club.

MADELINE HAHN

"Hahney" has unusually expressive brown eyes. Have you seen them? We're afraid they go to waste in the Cedar Grove Junior Women's Club. Dancing is one of "Hahney's" amusements, and is one in which she excels.

MARION GRACE HAMPSON

Marion is not one of the noisy members of our class, and she does not boast of her achievements but we know that she is an accomplished musician. Although quiet, Marion speaks with "music's golden tongue." She is active in the St. Agnes Guild at Christ Church, and is also a chorister there.

CAROLINE HARRISON

Here's "Carol", one of our jovial three year students. She's a hard woman to follow. You see she likes Florida, Canada, and Maine. Caroline intends to enter training for nursing in Maine.

Chem Club.

EDITH PAULINE HARTLEB

Edith's motto must be, "say little, do much," for she is a follower of this policy. Although not loquacious, Edith utilizes much of her spare time skating, hiking, and swimming.

German Club.

HOMER HECKEL

Lately we fear that Homer has over-emphasized the amorous side of his nature. Otherwise he is a rabid baseball fan the whole year round, and he is also a devotee of golf and aquatic sports.

Sphinx Club, Student Council, Student Prints.

RICHARD F. HERMANN

"Dick" has an interesting pastime. He raises and sells flowers. He seems to have a gift of making blooms turn out better than they usually are able to all by themselves. Though by nature quiet, "Dick" is at no loss for friends, who enjoy his droll sense of humor.

MARY C. HICKEY

"Skippy" is excellent proof that still water runs deep. Though she has little to say, she is one of the class's most efficient typists. Mary derives much pleasure from dancing and plays tennis well.

Red Cross, Student Prints, Annual Board.

1935 Cavalcade

DAVID F. HINKLEY

"Dave" came to us in our senior year from Rye, New York, via East Orange. Although here only a short time, "Dave" has formed many friendships. Unknown to most of us, he is an accomplished magician. He has a disappearing act that's a wow. (He has pictures to prove it.) "Dave" has a fine voice which he used to advantage in the Boys' Glee Club.

EDWARD LEE HILDEBRANT

"Ed" came to Bloomfield in '32 from Belleville High. His hobby is gun collecting, and he has a collection of over thirty pieces. "Ed" expects this hobby to grow into a vocation, for he has decided to enter the field of Ballistics. A one-cylinder motor boat and an Essex have taken up a great deal of his time.

Hi-Y, Math Club, Orchestra.

JANICE HOERR

Janice was a welcome addition to the class from Chile two years ago. We all enjoy her contagious laugh and sunny disposition.

Spanish Club-Pres., Chem Club, Girl Reserves, Annual Board.

FLORENCE HOGAN

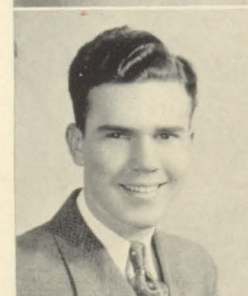

We all are jealous of the outside activities which have deprived us of "Florrie's" company. Our acquaintance with her is far too slight, for we have found her a likable classmate. Doris Van Buskirk is her inseparable companion of whom we are envious.

EDWARD HOLLAND

"Ed's" one of those confirmed optimists, but then he's lucky to have someone to be optimistic about, isn't he, Doris? He's also a sports writer and news commentator for the "Prints".

Hi-Y, Student Council, Senior Play.

WILLIAM R. HUCK

And here we have the future financier of the class of June, '35, "Bill" spent last summer working in the Bloomfield Bank and Trust Company. He has actively participated in school life and has been an important cog in two State Championship football teams.

Football Hi-Y, Student Council, Stage Crew, Prom Committee, V. Pres. Class of Feb. '36.

1935 Cavalcade

CLARA HUFF

A pair of blue eyes, a smiling face, a sparkling nature describes "Huffie". We have always known her to enliven the most uninteresting class. We predict for Clara "a life that leads melodious days", although she enjoys some things more than others. (The latter referring to reading poems in English class.)

RUTH HULTBERG

Ruth is popular for her ability to get on with everyone. She is president of the Girl Reserves, the class secretary and Steve's little "cup-cake". She likes horseback riding and tennis most, but also indulges in swimming, golf and dancing.

Girl Reserves, Pres. Chem Club.

MARIE FRANCES HUMMEL

"Dixie" used to live in Philadelphia, but she changed her mind (a woman's prerogative) and her home. During her one year here Marie's humor has won her many friends.

Band, Orchestra, Spanish Club.

KATHRINE JAYCOX

Kathrine is a very quiet person but her silence has brought her an interesting friendship with Joelle Allen. Have you ever seen Kathrine driving around in her car? Her braids are the envy of many of her class mates.

H. ALICE JOHNSON

Alice comprises half of the Hartleb-Johnson combination, which is one of those close friendships so often struck up in Bloomfield. She likes swimming and skating as sports, but has selected quite a different field for a vocation. After graduation she will be the private secretary for the "big boss" somewhere.

Spanish Club, Student Patrol.

ELIZABETH J. JOHNSON

"Betty" must firmly believe that the shortest route to a man's heart is through his stomach, for she devotes much of her time to the culinary art. Elizabeth is also quite a swimmer, and is often at the "Y".

1935 Cavalcade

DOROTHY JONES

Although Dorothy is quiet, she has a keen sense of humor. It may be that her quietness is due to long hours of boating and swimming. Any teacher can depend on Dorothy to do her lessons. She has not decided what college to attend.

Annual Board, German Club, Hiking Club.

FRANK W. KAMMERER, JR.

Frank sings rather beautifully. His veiled sad tones creep up on one sometimes and touch one's heart quite unexpectedly. His versatility is astounding; for he is a golfer, tennis player, rifleman, dancer, and motor boat racer. He has taken prominent part in innumerable musical events in the High School.

SARAH H. KAUTZ

Sarah is one of the quietest, most unassuming members of the class. Few people know her very well but we all like and admire her. Swimming and skating are her favored amusements.

VERA KEEFER

Vera has evidently seen quite a bit of the world. After attending schools in California and Connecticut, she has settled down to graduate from Bloomfield High. Although Vera gets in trouble now and then over lessons etc., she skillfully patches things up.

THOMAS JOSEPH KIRBY

"Mike's" reticent personality finds a perfect outlet for any meditation he may care to enjoy while fishing. He welcomes a refreshing dip, too, now and then, to soothe the perspiring brow as it glistens in the summer's heat. A good, all-round fellow is "Mike".

PHYLLIS M. KIRCHNER

Few men are bank presidents before fifty, but here's a High School student who is one already, eh, "Phyl"? She isn't stout as you'd expect a big banker to be, for the Gym Team keeps her figure lythe. She's a good sport, too.

Gym Team, Annual Typist, Spanish Club.

1935 Cavalcade

ELIZABETH KNAPP

Have you seen that tall, slim blonde who rushes around so busily? The Knapp-Masluk or rather, "Mutt and Jeff" combination is as unbreakable as a Yale Lock. "Betty's" rather quiet and reserved looking, but, appearances are deceiving, you know! "Betty's" future looks bright and shining to us.

MICHAEL J. KOCHER

Here he is, folks. The only high school student in the state to play on three championship football teams. He captained the 1934 team and was all-state tackle for three years. Besides, "Mike" was also varsity catcher on the 1932 baseball team. He has a golden personality and is a fine sport.

ROBERT B. KOEHLER

"Bob" is a rabid radio bug. He is a licensed amateur operator and has his own station. When "Bob" and Gordon Garis get together, there arises a conglomeration of words dealing with radio—with differences of opinions in the of-fing.

Band, Orchestra, Math Club.

FRANK KOVACH

Frank is possibly the supreme raconteur of the class, speaks well on any subject, and quenches his opponent with his fiery oratory.

German Club, Latin Club.

CARL KROLL

"Ace" is a three-and-a-half-year student. Here is the fellow we invariably find with Alfie Larson. (What a pair!) Most of his time is spent in a drugstore in Watsessing where he is a clerk. He plays a mean tenor sax, likes swimming, tennis, baseball and football.

JEAN PAUL LACKEY

Who does not recognize the imposing figure of large, good-natured Jean? He is one of the best sports in the class, with small fondness for practical jokes. Jean is also locally famous for his fondness of athletics and also shows a weakness for "napping" in "P. D."

1935 Cavalcade

ALFRED JOHN LARSON

"Al" was our leading man in the senior play. He's a little noisy at times but on the other hand he is a good mixer and makes many friends. He enjoys listening to good orchestras and probably some day we shall see him with one of his own.

Senior Play.

MAYBELLE A. LAWRENCE

"Bunny" came to us from Roosevelt Junior High, Cleveland, Ohio. She entered right into our activities though, and is a member of the Swimming and Home Economics Clubs, as well as being a Senior Gym Team girl. She favors swimming, dancing, golf, and the movies as spare time hobbies.

Senior Gym Team, Swimming Club.

ADELE LAWLESS

Adele certainly has upheld the Lawless reputation for beautiful damsels. She has that certain, ethereal air which so many girls lack—and it just comes "natural-like", by gum! However, that dainty hand wields a mean racket, we understand.

LENA GENEVIEVE LICATO

Lena recently entered our portals from West Side High. She has been with us only a half-year. She is a bright person, and her marks show it.

Hiking Club, Latin Club.

WILLIAM R. LINKE

"Bill" hails from Milwaukee where the beer flows freely. But don't get him wrong, he's really a sober fellow. He is an active member of the Student Patrol and in his leisure moments finds time for a little tennis, baseball, or probably some golf.

Student Patrol.

WINIFRED LOSEE

A winsome smile that speaks the fondest thoughts. All who have had Winifred's acquaintance in the band, the orchestra, and the Girl Reserves know this to be true. "Winnie's" graduation is a great loss to all.

ROBERT C. MACE

"Bob" has enjoyed himself here without a too zealous application to books making him round-shouldered or crabby. An active worker, he belongs to the Math, Chem clubs, and was connected with the Senior Play.

Chem Club, Math Club, Senior Play, Student Prints, Student Patrol.

LUCILLE E. MARKESE

"Marky" joined us from the Vocational School in Newark, and were we lucky! Although not a bit athletic looking, Lucille seems to enjoy all sports.

Glee Club.

ROBERT MANSFIELD

"You can come in but you can't go out." This is the memorable command of our red-headed "cop" in a very "Full House." We predict "Bob" to be the best type of our budding politicians.

Senior Play, Student Patrol.

NETTIE MARKOWITZ

This young lady came to us from Creston Junior High School in New York. However she very quickly made friends through her pleasant personality and now is quite at home among us. Nettie is one of those girls who leave us every noon to take a course in dental assistance. These lucky dentists! We wish her lots of luck in her chosen profession.

MILDRED MARTENS

Someone's giggling. It's so infectious you start to laugh. Study hall teachers like "Milly's" laugh,—not! We have never been quite able to decide whether or not she is a man-hater. At least she likes children and tropical fish.

German Club.

1935 Cavalcade

HENRY J. MARYANSKI

When "Henny" makes up his mind not to do something, he doesn't do it! He came to B. H. S. from St. Benedict's Prep School when he was a junior. Among some of his hobbies are golf, fooling around in the chemistry lab., automobiles and studying the fundamentals of aviation.

ELSIE MASINDA

"Sindy" can usually be seen floating around delivering notices. If you fail to recognize her, look for Tally Caprio, as the two are fast friends and inseparable. Elsie has been on the Junior and Senior Gym Teams, and goes in for skating, swimming and dancing. Lots of luck, "Sindy"! Gym Team.

NASTASIA MASLUK

"Stacia" is a quiet type of person, but her silence has won her many friends. Traveling, tennis, stamp collecting, dancing and swimming prove a great fascination for "Stacia".

Spanish Club.

RUSSELL JAMES
McCHESNEY

West Orange High lost a wonderful personality when "Russ" came to Bloomfield. At West Orange he was associate editor of the school paper and a member of the Spanish Club. He has made many friends while in Bloomfield High.

RITA McCLOUD

Here's our blonde, fair Rita. She is business manager of the Student Prints. Rita has taken to the odd hobby of fencing. Horseback riding, swimming, dancing and hiking demand a great deal of Rita's time also.

Girl Reserves, Student Council, Glee Club, Senior Gym Team, Junior Prom Committee.

MILDRED DELL McKAY

Have you happened to see a spectator jumping up and down excitedly at wrestling matches? Most likely it was "Milly", for she likes to watch them. Taking care of her lovely gray cat, drawing and painting are her favorite hobbies. "Milly" is another potential secretary, and a good one too.

Spanish Club, Sec., Hiking Club, Student Prints.

WILLIAM J. MEAD

"Bill" comes to us from Dickinson High in Jersey City. He is quite a ball player and has displayed his talent on several local teams. He is also an athletic enthusiast, and follows many teams in different sports.

German Club, Chem Club, Orchestra.

ELEANOR MENNE

"Min" limits her outside activities to dancing, swimming, and "going with a certain somebody". She ushered at our Senior Play—which probably had something to do with the large attendance. "Min" belongs to the Girl Reserves and is a former Gym Team member.

Gym Team, Girl Reserves.

FRED H. MERKEL

Enter the class Rudy Vallee! Fred has bewitched many an innocent maiden by his heart-wrenching jazz on the sax. (To say nothing of his amusing laugh!)

Chem Club Pres., Hi-Y, Vice Pres. Band, Orchestra, Annual Board, Math Club.

JOHN J. MORRISON, JR.

John played tennis for old B. H. S. during the two years we have had a team. He is going to Union to study Chemistry this fall.

RUTH MOSELY

Ruth is President of the Swimming Club and a member of the Hiking Club, so you see, she can travel on land or sea, and with no suppressed merriment either, eh what? Ruth also belongs to Miss Hartz's "Cercle". Going to become a real "Frog", Ruth?

Swimming Club, Hiking Club.

THOMAS V. MORTON

"Tom's" fine work on the Student Prints, the Student Council and the Student Patrol, indicates his interest in student activity. Out of school he's an amateur radio fan, scientist extraordinary, and is known as Mr. Smiley's right hand man.

JANET R. MUIR

Hrr-umph, Mr. Skogsberg, it now becomes obvious why so many people show strong desires to "hang around" in the first floor during the sixth period. Well, that's what happens when you have a popular girl on the Patrol, doesn't it, "Jany"?

Girl Reserves, Red Cross, Student Patrol, Chem Club.

ANNA ELIZABETH NEAD

Pretty, blonde, and poised describes "Betty" to a "T". She is very quiet around school, but that dignity vanishes into impishness once among her own friends. Ask Eugenie Euvrard, who is her closest friend. Ice skating, reading and dogs, no less, are her pet diversions. "Lucky dogs!"

FRANCES FRIDLEY
NEEDHAM

Frances came from Barringer in '33 and has since established an enviable record both scholastically and in extra-curricular work.

Student Prints, Editor, Latin Club Sec., Student Council, Sphinx Club.

FRANK NELSON

Frank came here from Montclair and soon became a colorful member of the baseball team. "Feet" pulls the fans out of their seats when he comes to bat. It took Frank and Mr. Smiley a long time to agree who was teaching Physics, anyway!

JOHN F. OLDERSHAW

"Jack" is the fellow with that big broad smile. No matter where you see him, he always wears it. For four years "Jack" has been our class president and has done a swell job of it, too. He's a good worker both for his class and for his friends.

Student Council, Hi-Y, Class President.

THOMAS W. O'NEILL

Where "Tommy" got the nickname "Shadow", we don't know, but we do know that he's a swell fellow. He came to us from Barringer High where he was a member of the Track Team. He's also quite a swimmer and swings a mean racquet too, when it comes to tennis.

CATHERINE JANE ORTEL

"Hey—where's Hultberg?" These familiar words usually identify "Kay", who actually "adores" contract bridge. She has a yen for Admiral Farragut Academy—well, it "might" be the uniform. "Kay" spends most of her spare time riding, swimming, and sailing a "15 footer".

Chem Club, Swimming Club, Girl Reserves.

ROBERT OWEN

"Bob" lives way up north—in Cedar Grove to be exact. He is assistant janitor in Cedar Grove School and from what we hear, "Oscar" had better look to his laurels.

Sphinx Club, Gym Team, Chem Club, Girl Reserves.

MARTHA D. PAYSEUR

What we've all been wondering is how Martha manages to keep that trick haircomb in place. Maybe it's done with "sky hooks."

Dancing, swimming, and tennis rate first among her hobbies. She is also a member of the Spanish Club.

Spanish Club.

RICHARD H. PERRINE

Here's our class treasurer, folks! He's as honest as the day is long and when it comes to handling business matters, "Dick" takes the cake. In his leisure moments, you are bound to find him at the "Y", either dancing or swimming. Incidentally; "Dick" won his letter in the latter sport.

THERESA PERRON

This beauty with the golden blonde tresses, came to us from Western Commerce. Consequently, "Terry" hasn't entered into many of our activities. At Western Commerce, she captained the Gym Team and edited her class paper. At Seton High she was in the Latin Club and the Student Council. And is she pretty? "Ray" says, "Yes!"

JEAN PETROWSKI

Working after school has limited Jean's extra curricular activities and deprived us of her company. However, we have discovered that she is bubbling over with fun, and loves to dance. A better secretary than Jean is hard to find.

Spanish Club.

DOROTHY PILCH

A thrill, a burst of song, of course it's the happy-go-lucky "Pilchy". Besides singing she adores knitting and is an ardent swimmer. "Pilchy" expects to enroll at Columbia University this fall.

"Quack" is a gift from Cedar Grove. Although handicapped by a false mustache, he easily handled a lead in the Senior Play. "Walt" is a charter member of that famous group of Senior reactionaries. He is a swell fellow with a rare gift of humor. Ping-pong, tennis, and swimming are his hobbies.

Student Council, Glee Club, Senior Play.

ROCCO RAFFANELLO

Although she appears quiet to the casual passers-by don't let it fool you, for Helen is really a very active person. Besides being on the Senior Gym Team, she is treasurer of the Spanish Club, enjoys dancing and is an excellent swimmer.

Spanish Club, Senior Gym Team.

MARGARET LOUISE REICHMANN

"But Mr. Ross,—don't you think—?" So argues "Marg". She seems to be kept pretty busy too, for besides arguing she goes in for basketball and is a dental assistant. Not stopping here "Marg" goes further to be a Camp Fire Girl and "S. P." reporter.

Girls' Glee Club, Gym Team, Girl Reserves.

ALVIN REINECKE

Meet the class gay lothario! We often wonder what would have become of us without "Al" Reinecke. He allowed no culprit escape due chastisement during his period on the Student Patrol. "Al" moved three years ago to Bloomfield from West Orange.

Musical Comedy, Student Patrol.

MARJORIE A. REUTER

"Margie" is one of those few people who realize that time flies, so she decided to graduate in three and one-half years. We gladly welcome "Margie" for we are sure that in the future we shall proudly say, "She graduated with us."

Red Cross, Sphinx Club, Senior Play of '36.

LLOYD GEORGE ROMANELLI

Hiking Club-Pres., Latin Club-Vice-Pres., Senior Play Committee, Chemistry Club.

Student Prints, Girl Reserves, Annual Board.

HARVEY SELDEN RUSSELL

"Sel" is another of those rare animals,—three and one-half year students. This new member of our class claims that his outside interests are sleeping, painting, and women. Marjorie and Florence Easter are great pals. "Margie" is one of those ardent football fans who so loyally support our team. Besides football "Margie" likes swimming and sewing.

Band-Pres., Orchestra-Pres., Glee Club, Hi-Y, Student Council, Student Patrol, Junior Red Cross.

JOSEPH SPINA

Although "Joe" has not been with us for long, his ready laugh and keen sense of humor have distinguished him in the class. "Joe" is generally to be found wherever there is fun in the offing. Outside of school he spends his time swimming and playing football and baseball. Good luck, "Joe", but never be a chemist.

ELSIE STEELE

Tradition has it that all nurses are pretty and Elsie will be no exception to the rule when she enters Mountainside Hospital next fall. She has gotten in some practice, and with her sympathetic manner we predict sure success.

THOMAS VASSAR

Mr. Haupin just can't figure "Ted" out, for he seldom bothers with the easy math but always manages to solve the "tough ones", which stop everyone else. "Ted" also runs his own printing shop, and has a large trade.

Student Prints, Math Club

MARGARET L. VREELAND

We think "Margie" must read up on the Culbertsons because of her delight in playing a good game of bridge. She's always busy; if she's not walking or reading, she's dancing. Keep it up, "Margie", energy goes a long way.

Girls' Glee Club, Home Economics, Girl Reserves.

DOROTHY ELIZABETH WALL

If you ever see "Dot" quiet, it's a miracle. Being quite a talkative person and a lover of fun, "Dot" has helped the girls of the Hiking Club to enjoy their long walks. She's quite an extraordinary person, indeed.

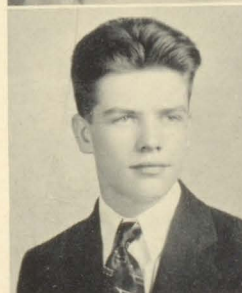

Student Prints, Hiking Club Treas.

HELEN WANDELE

Have you noticed the quiet girl with the big smile? Helen as a nurse, will be able to cure her patients with it alone. She likes hiking, golf, swimming and ice skating, but her favorite hobby is music.

Girls' Gym Team, All Glee Clubs, Band.

ELMER M. WARD

"Tunney" began his High School career in Irvington, where he was a member of the Freshman baseball team. After Bloomfield trimmed I. H. S. in football in 1933, he decided to come to Bloomfield! He is a quiet, pleasing fellow and has commanded the respect of all who have come in contact with him. His hobbies are swimming, tennis, baseball, basketball and movies.

SALLY WELLS

Although Sally has been our classmate for only two years, she is well known and popular. She gave an amusing characterization of "Auntie" in our Senior Play. Sally was largely responsible for the popular Girls' Swimming Club, and is its outstanding "dash man".

Swimming Club, Girl Reserves, Chem Club, Senior Play.

1935 Cavalcade

LEO J. WEST

"Westy" works after school and on Saturdays, so he does not take a very active part in school affairs. He is interested in sports and radio, however, and enjoys football, baseball, and swimming.

MARGARET WHITE

We wonder why it is that the efficient ex-secretary of the Girl Reserves seems to have such an interest in Pennsylvania? Be that as it may, "Peggy" is one of these lucky girls who can fit in any place or any company. She has not decided whether to go into teaching or dentistry.

Junior Gym Team, Sphinx Club.

CAROL MARIE WIENBERG

Here we present "Toots", the Advertising Manager who brings in so many ads for the Student Prints. And little do we wonder, for who could resist such charm. Becoming an expert fencer and dancer are Carol's greatest ambitions.

Spanish Club, Student Prints.

NORMAN PAUL WILL

Norman could perhaps best be described as a fellow with "depth". His reticent nature hides from us some of his attributes, but he is well liked for his sincerity and earnestness.

ALEXANDER WILLIAMS

"Al" is the tall, dark, quiet fellow who can generally be found in Miss Thomas' room. Ever since he entered school, "Al" has been busy making those posters that are inevitably found hanging in the halls. He is also responsible for most of the linoleum cuts we have had in the Student Prints. "Al" is also an accomplished pianist.

Latin Club, Annual Board.

VIRGINIA MARIE WOLLENTIN

Variety is the spice of life, and that's why "Jinny" picks swimming, baseball, skating, dancing, and music to do away with monotony in her leisure time. We do wonder what she laughs so hard at in third period study. If we ever have a class reunion, be sure to remember those jokes, "Jinny".

1935 Cavalcade

NANCY WOODRUFF

"Nan" came to us in her sophomore year from Immaculate Conception High. She is one of those misleading persons who appear to be very quiet but when you know them better, turn out just the opposite and full of fun. "Nan's" an active club member and an enthusiastic swimmer.

Girl Reserves, Chemistry Club, French Club, Student Prints.

EDITH WRIGHT

In contrast to the raucous voices which are heard around Bloomfield High "Eadie's" is low and melodious. In appearance she lives up to her voice. She is an enthusiastic horse-woman as well as basketball fan and is very much interested in the Red Cross.

Girl Reserves, Girls' Glee Club, Junior Red Cross (Pres.), Mixed Glee Club.

ADELE HELEN WRONSKY

Happy, jolly, and carefree these words describe Adele most suitably. "Ace" puts down vacationing in Massachusetts as one of her hobbies. We wonder why.

Chemistry Club, Annual Board, Glee Club.

BEN J. WUJEK

Ben is probably the best bowler in the class. He spends most of his time in a local bowling alley where he works as a pinboy. Ben is quite active in athletics and during the year, he wore the colors of the St. Valentine Athletic Club.

MARY YOUNG

Mary seems quiet if you don't know her, but you can always be sure of a good time once you become acquainted. "Skees" has a lot of ambition for such a little girl. She's always busy in her quiet way, and tennis, dancing, and the radio take up most of Mary's spare time.

JANET ZAMOJSKI

Do you suppose "Jan" uses milk to wash with? If she doesn't what is the secret of her fair skin? "Jan's" hobbies are reading, movies, walking, tennis, and dogs. She combines the ability to enjoy the outdoors with that of filling executive positions in several clubs.

Hiking Club, Home Economics (Pres.), Latin Club.

NOTE OF THANKS

We, the Annual Board, speaking for the entire class, wish to extend our sincere thanks and best wishes to Miss Anna Thomas and Miss Anne Smith, who have aided us immeasurably in publishing our book.

CLASS HISTORY

One September morning in 1931, some two hundred Freshmen cautiously negotiated the portals of the Alma Mater; with visions of very wet drinking fountains dwelling in their limited minds. Such was the unprepossessing entrance of the Class of 1935 into Bloomfield High School.

Mr. Edson J. Lawrence was selected as class adviser, and soon set things going. He gave an interesting party for our parents in the fall of '31, the outstanding events of which were Mr. Poole's speech, and refreshments. (The former interesting the parents and the latter, the students, thus typifying Mr. Lawrence's finesse in his official capacity.) We also gave a well-received dance in the boys' gym later in the term.

In September, 1932, having acceded to the estate of Sophomores, we immediately decided to have a stationery sale, which later turned out to be very profitable. We conducted the usual class dance in the boys' gym, and it was carried out successfully.

During the year of 1933, as juniors, we planned and carried out successfully several interesting enterprises. The first of these was a class leaflet, "The Spectator", published weekly for the purpose of informing members of current class activities. Next on the calendar came our Junior Promenade.

This was indeed, a noteworthy event, being given outside the school, and thus setting a precedent. This social highlight of the year was given in the spacious ballroom of the Glen Ridge Women's Club. Ken Smith's orchestra provided delightful music, and the parents of members of the class attended as patrons. The Committee, largely responsible for the success of the dance, was headed by Richard Perrine as chairman.

In the spring, a generous profit appeared on the class records from the sale of identification bracelets, which were distributed by Eugenie Euvrard, to whom we owe much for her contributions to the class.

At the opening of our Senior year, we held a class meeting at which prevailing questions were discussed, and class officers elected. Jack Oldershaw was re-elected president for his fourth consecutive term, an honor gained by few students of this High School.

Our play, entitled "A Full House", was given on November 9 and 10. The spirit in which it was received is typified by the following review published in the Independent Press.

"The Senior B. Class of Bloomfield High School presented its senior play, "A Full House", a three act comedy by Fred Jackson, in the High School auditorium on Friday and Saturday nights. The large auditorium was filled almost to capacity on Friday evening, when the reviewer attended the play, and a large audience was present on Saturday, also.

"The cast was particularly well chosen, with special acting honors going to Elizabeth Rumsey, who took the part of Susie, a maid with no-so-suppressed desires to return to her native Sioux City. Sally Wells, as Miss Winnecker, maiden aunt from the metropolis of Yonkers, also drew many laughs and acted her part well. Jack Ayre, Robert Mansfield and John Durgom, as three policemen of the dumber variety, did much to enliven proceedings and were well received by enthusiastic groups in the audience. Alfred Larson gave a convincing portrayal of the only son of a wealthy mother, whose awkward and amusing efforts to propose to Daphne Charters, played by Wilma Brosch, are finally crowned with success. Shirley Bongartz, as Vera Vernon, a show-girl with whom Ned, the aforesaid scion of the wealthy family, is entangled, gave not only an excellent portrayal of the hard-boiled "chorine", but also a first-class demonstration of wrestling ability in her tussle with Ned and George Howell, Ned's friend, whose part was ably taken by Walter Quackenbush. Others in the cast were George Daniels as Parks, Eugenie Euvrard and Anita Stewart, who shared the part of Ottily Howell, George Griffith as the light-fingered Nicholas King, Lucy Purcell as Mrs. Fleming and Norma Smith as Mrs. Pembroke, the Boston dowager mother of the debonair Ned.

"The story was a merry mix-up concerning purloined love letters, stolen jewels and mixed-up traveling bags. The entire action took place in the Fleming apartment, a very attractive set.

"A. Dixi Crosby did his usual splendid job in coaching the play. The young actors showed a poise and sureness which spoke highly for their training. Andrew Tymon was the assistant director, and others behind the scenes were E. J. Lawrence, class adviser; Ruth Hultberg, student director; Richard Perrine, Business manager; Robert Mace, Jules Reynaud and Edward Bowns, assistants to the assistants to the business manager; Edward Holland, advertising manager; May Drake and Alexander Williams, assistants to the advertising manger; Frances Needham, publicity manager; Fred Merkel and Andrew Anderson, assistants to the publicity manager; Robert Goodwin, program chairman, assisted by William Braley, David Bartlett, William Donovan and Alma Sutton; William Huck, stage manager, assisted by Gordon Polle, William Jones and Albert Nims; Steven Schuyler, head electrician; Thomas Oakes and Garrison King, assistant electricians; Griffith Orme and Robert DeBois, in charge of properties, and Palmer Collins, call boy. The head ushers were Janet Patton and Dorothy Farwell.

"The committee in charge of the performance included Robert Carr, Carol Wienberg, Lottie Rucki, Jack Fulbeck, Rita McCloud and Jack Oldershaw.

"The High-Gate Ramblers furnished the music during intermissions and for the dancing which followed each performance."

At the beginning of the last turn, various class meetings were held, at which the Annual Staff was selected, and the Washington trip planned.

The outstanding event of the year was the Washington Trip. The seniors were conveyed to the Capital via bus and train, and three early spring days were spent in moseying about the city. Among the notable places visited were the Capitol Building, the Congressional Library, Arlington Cemetery, The U. S. Naval Academy and the Washington monument. Some time was given to the students for themselves, and immediately various places of amusement were hunted up and visits paid thereto. Oh Boy! What a trip!

On Class Night we gaily burlesqued Graduation, but a true note of regret was felt at the real Commencement, as we parted from friends and scenes long familiar to us. So it comes our turn to leave, and the Class of June, 1935, says goodbye to Bloomfield High.

CLASS WILL

I, Gladto Getout, commonly known as the "Class of June '35", make, publish and declare this my last will and testament, and do thus give, devise, and bequeath the following articles, privileges and appurtenances of my estate, unto those personages sub-mentioned. To wit:

I grant, to the Freshmen of Bloomfield High School, the singular privilege of playing tag, in those majestic halls of learning and indulging in similar adolescent frivolities such as shooting paper wads and staples in Assembly—provided that they do not go to the extremes of requiring Mr. Foley to referee tit-tat-to games or pester Miss Russell to pinch-hit in the girls' baseball games.

To the Sophomores of aforementioned institution I donate the ship's bell of Admiral von Donovan's flagship, with which to strike the hours during periods when Mr. Poole succumbs to the inclination to say a word or two. I also give these innocents a "key hole-looker-through-er" to use on the door of Mr. Crosby's club house, the better to ascertain what "goeth on therein."

I bequeath to the Juniors of this austere establishment, something of intrinsic value, as a reward for having acquired sufficient knowledge of history throughout 2 years of the same to ascertain that the 3rd year course is not a thing to be tampered with, or rashly undertaken. To wit: I give said Juniors a pamphlet published by the Graduate History Students' Union, entitled "The Dangers and Prevalence of Over-Somnambulism in the Growing Child."

To these same strange introverts, I give special permission to use a Physics book other than Mr. Dull's, whose name, on the binding, to say the least, is a mite discouraging to the uninitiated. Incidentally, hark ye well to Mr. Smiley's instruction, that you may, "to use a homely example," know it like a dog knows his tail, and furthermore, cross no bridges until they are hatched.

To those incorrigibles who have, after many years, and by varied schemes and skull-duggery arrived at the rank of "Senior", I leave two brand new, (all of them) records to be played in the Cafeteria at times when the ill-behaved students are not being "punished" by the lack of music. I also bequeath to these people the Teachers Cafeteria for renovation into a bar and grill, but there is to be no dancing on the tables. You must remain perfect gentlemen, as always.

Although in this last testament I seem to wander, I do remember, and highly esteem those characters set over me, of late, for the purpose of my instruction,—these last being known collectively as The Faculty.

1935 Cavalcade

Upon Mr. George T. Donahue, that long suffering “home-room president-over”, I bestow a set of self-arranging attendance cards, and an automatic pencil for executing the numeral “1” in the register at a rate of 30 per minute.

To Mr. Walt Mason I give the opportunity of figuring the Mechanical Advantages of said remarkable pencil.

To his co-physicist Mr. O. R. Smiley, I grant the privilege of testing the tensile strength of the George Washington bridge suspension cables. Note: I’ll bet they’ll take 20 lbs, no matter what it says on the box.

To Dr. Walrath, who has the “patience of Job” (he said so himself) I grant a tremor-detector to enable him to perceive the concussions of falling glassware in the lab,—at the same time forbidding coercion in the process of “collecting” for these breakages. (Beakers really don’t bounce!)

I do hereby give to Miss Anne Smith, equally patient by nature, a sound-proof room for protection against the distractions afforded by the Boys’ and the Girls’ Glee Clubs, racing each other through different songs, in the two adjoining rooms.

To Mr. Ross I gladly give a contrivance called the “Auto-Artist”, with which to illustrate a race degenerating, periods of maturation, and other such tangible subjects.

To the hard working janitors I leave a new card table, and also the request that they expel P.G.’s from the halls, thereby preventing the annoyance of Girl Student Patrol members, diligently applying themselves to their studies. Hrrumph!!

To Coach Willy Foley, I leave a daily newspaper with sundry perforations, that he may, with facility, project that Soph, who was talking in the back row, upon the stage, there to remain even forever more.

To Mr. Lawrence I give my best wishes, and I hope his next class will be more peaceable than the unruly gang now departing. In affirmation of these facts I have hereunto set my hand and seal, this day of June, 1935.

Signed: Gladto Getout

BASEBALL

After a lapse of one year, Bloomfield High was again represented on the baseball diamond. Last year, baseball was dropped from our athletic activities because the work on the stadium made the diamond inaccessible. With the strong battery of Borowy and Baldyga, the opposing batters encountered great difficulty in smashing out hits. The hitting ability of Worthington, Capt., Zergiebel, and Nicosia gave our opponents something to worry about. All in all, the 1935 baseball team has had a highly successful season.

TENNIS

Bloomfield entered the second year since the revival of varsity tennis with four eligible veterans, Lamont Curren, Captain Raymond Roberts, Robert Carr, and John Morrison. Mr. George T. Donahue was adviser and William Braley, manager. Twelve meets were scheduled with leading schools.

FOOTBALL

For the second year in succession Bloomfield High's prowess on the gridiron resulted in a State Championship. Starting out with an inexperienced combination, Coach Foley's efforts finally produced an unbeatable eleven. Lack of experience and a muddy field conspired against our hopes for a victory, in the Garfield game and we lost 6-0.

Bloomfield then hit her stride and continued unbeaten until the Montclair game. Montclair had a very good team but a 13-0 victory proved the way to a sectional title and our challenge to Collingswood of the Southern Section for the mythical championship. The game was arranged for Dec. 8, a day which greeted us with zero weather. Tony Grigonis scored twice and these tallies gave Bloomfield a 14-7 victory. The Associated Press voted the Bengals "Champion of Champions". All in all, it was a truly remarkable season.

BASKETBALL

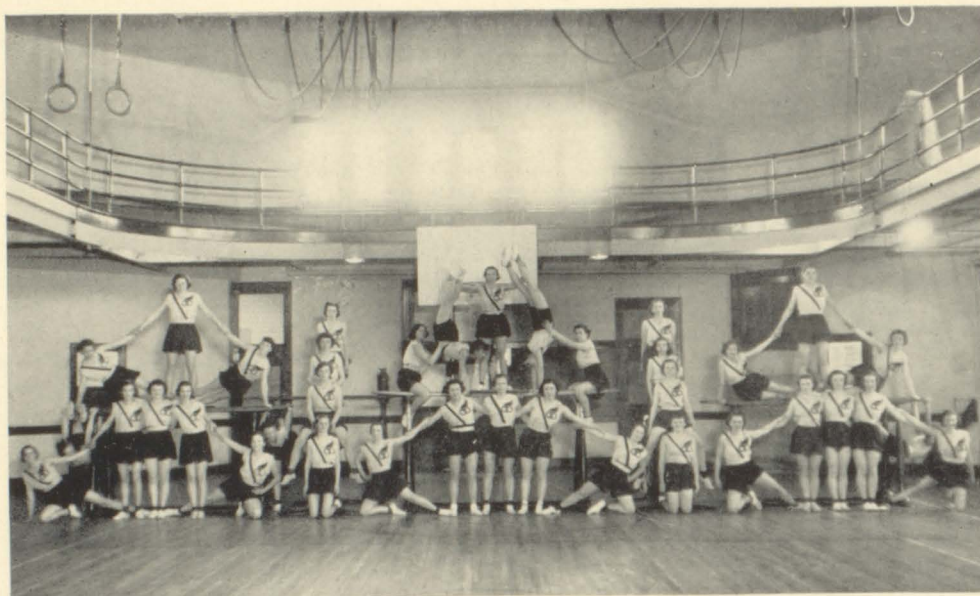

Bloomfield's basketball team at first did not seem to realize its latent possibilities. However, during the Garfield game the team came to life and from there on they played basketball, running up six straight, and finishing the season with a well earned victory over Glen Ridge.

Worthington, Curren, Captain Neigh, Haug, Morgan, P. Sheyka were the lettermen. Robert Foster was manager.
